

THE CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF EARLY AMERICAN HISTORY
2012 Summer Teacher Institute

All the Kingdoms of the Earth: Henry Knox's World in Global, National and Local Perspective
July 16-20, 2012

Open to history and social studies teachers
Anticipated course eligibility for up to 40 contact hours
Planned to be offered in conjunction with the University of Maine, Hutchinson Center (3 credits)
& Framingham State University (3 credits)

APPLICATION

Application must contain:

1. A completed application form.
2. A resume (limited to 2 pages).
3. A statement (limited to 500 words) in which the applicant describes how this course will strengthen them professionally, and demonstrates their intellectual curiosity, appreciation for historical scholarship, and creativity.
4. Two letters of recommendation, one of which must be from an immediate supervisor and written on official letterhead. Letters should address the applicant's work habits, teaching successes, and professional achievements.

Completed applications received by April 15, 2012 receive priority. Send to:

The General Henry Knox Museum
Center for the Study of Early American History
P.O. Box 326, Thomaston, ME 04861
207-354-0858 FAX: 207-354-0886 E-mail: center@knoxmuseum.org

Name _____ Home Tel# _____

Address _____ email _____

City, State _____ Zip Code _____

School where currently employed _____ Tel # _____

Address of school _____

City, State _____ Zip Code _____ County _____

Grade and/or subject(s) currently teaching _____

Do you plan to register with the for college credit?* _____

Signature _____ Will you need housing? _____

For college credit, applicants must also register and pay tuition for this course through that institution.
University of Maine's Hutchinson Center call: 1-800-753-9044.
Framingham State University call: 1-508-626-4550.*